

Discrimination is Against the Law:

JEVS at Home complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, religion, creed, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, military status, veteran status, HIV status, handicap, disability, gender, gender identity or expression, or membership in any other protected group.

JEVS at Home Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, etc.)
- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English such as: Qualified interpreters, and information written in other languages.

If you need these services, contact the Vice President of Quality and Compliance, Robert Jamison.

If you believe JEVS at Home has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of age, race, color, religion, creed, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, military status, veteran status, HIV status, handicap, disability, gender, gender identity or expression, or membership in any other protected group you can file a grievance with:
